INFORMATION FOR UNREPRESENTED LITIGANTS

The employees of the Clerk's office and the Courts are NOT allowed to give legal advice to any person. Litigants and parties to a lawsuit are NOT permitted to speak to Judges or court staff about legal matters. Unrepresented persons are strongly encouraged to seek guidance from an attorney on any legal issue, including filing lawsuits and case handling. Unrepresented persons are held to the same legal standard as attorneys and can easily risk jeopardizing their case. The following websites and agencies can be useful resources for unrepresented litigants.
